The Number of Lives Impacted by Mutual Ground

24-Hour Hotline
1,983 people received crisis intervention, guidance, support, information and referrals.

Emergency Shelter
220 women and their children had a safe place to call home, with counseling, legal advocacy, vocational and housing guidance, and children’s program.

Emergency Response
158 victims of domestic and sexual violence who were receiving care in area emergency rooms were provided emotional support, advocacy and resource information.

Counseling & Supportive Services
963 adults and children in our community received no cost counseling, support services and referrals.

Court Advocacy
796 individuals received assistance with orders of protection, child custody, and other complex legal challenges.

Prevention Education
2,212 education programs were presented to student (K-12) in 80 schools throughout Southern Kane and Kendall Counties.

5138
Nights of Safety.
Last year, Mutual Ground provided 98 adults and 122 children with safe shelter.

355
The Youngest Victims.
Mutual Ground worked with 355 children, in an effort to help them re-claim their childhood.
242
Orders of Protection
Court Advocates assisted in the preparation and filing of 242 Orders of Protection to help victims of domestic violence stay safe from their abuser.

1,983
Crisis Calls.
Our Emergency Hotline provided crisis counseling and assistance to 1,983 survivors of domestic violence and sexual assault with immediate safety and service needs.

3,956
Community Education.
Mutual Ground provided education to local hospitals, police departments, churches, civic organizations and businesses.

Through education, Mutual Ground works to change societal attitudes and beliefs, end the stigma associated with domestic and sexual violence, and help communities learn to identify and support victims.

158
Hospital Calls.
Last year, 158 victims of domestic and sexual assault received support and advocacy in area emergency rooms.